ANOTHER OCEAN LINE.—We learn from the Victoria Colonist that an effort is being made, and with promise of success, to establish a line of steamships between Vancouver Island and Astoria, connecting with Portland through the ships of the California Steam Navigation Company's line. Success in this enterprise would advantage both Portland and Victoria. Our communication with Victoria would then be direct and doubtless more frequent than now, while such an arrangement would make Portland the northern terminus of the California steamship route. Victoria also would derive a benefit by the passengers and freight going almost direct from San Francisco through; the only stoppage required being a change of vessels at Astoria. The quantities of foreign goods which we consume and which find their way to our market from Victoria, would ensure the vessels of that and of the line fair return cargoes. The freighting from Astoria to Portland would be quite an item for the river boats, and altogether the interests of many parties would be promoted by the inauguration of the Victoria and Columbia River Line of steamers.

THE OWYHEE MINES.—The following is an extract from a private letter from C. F. Miller, Esq., of the firm of Bloch, Miller & Co., of the Dalles, dated Owyhee, June 29th:

"You will have noticed that I have spent nearly two weeks in Owyhee. I devoted much of my time to prospecting the different quartz lodes, in which I found much interest and encouragement. I believe no one ever visiting Owyhee, has taken as much pains in finding out what the country is as I have. I have been on nearly every lodge in the camp, been in the prospect holes, examined the rock, and have come to the conclusion that no country ever prospected so richly in quartz before. Without an exception, every lode that has been sunk to a depth of 20 feet turns out good rock that will. I am satisfied, pay well. I have with me a number of specimens which will be interesting to any one acquainted with gold and silver quartz, and when I return and show them to you, I think you will be very much encouraged with the prospect. We have 200 feet on the South extension Oro Fino—the only ledge we have got down on to any depth—that I would not sell to day for $100 per foot. I have set some men to work sinking down on the claims of the Dalles & Owyhee Mining Company, all the indications promise well. It would do you good to see the rich rock that comes out of the Crane & Driggs' shaft, which has been sunk down to a depth of 75 feet from a ledge 36 inches in width—the whole being perfectly mottled with black sulphates of silver and gold, plainly to be seen on the rock. Let anyone see what I have, and the uniform expression will be that Owyhee promises better than any other country on the Pacific coast. The Crane & Driggs Co., are incorporated, they own ground in the first south extension of the Oro Fino where the shaft that I made mention of is sunk. I regard this Company as the Gould & Curry of Owyhee. Mr. Crane, the Superintendent of the Company, is skilled in mining operations, and has the enterprise to push forward the development of his mines. Mark what I say, you will see many bricks from the Crane & Driggs before long, as there will be a mill in operation in a few weeks, the machinery being all on the ground. This is the Ainsworth Mill under the superintendence of a thorough, skilled business man from Washoe. In speaking of Crane & Driggs don't understand that it is the only mine that promises bricks, but that it will furnish the first, it being the best developed lode in Owyhee. I speak of it with more certainty for the reason that I know it will be pushed through as fast as work can do it and the farther down they sink the richer they find it—I don't know but that if they keep on they will find pure silver and gold. Feet in this mine cannot be purchased for less than $100 and in my opinion it is worth as many thousands. I cannot in any description of mine do justice to the wealth of this country, but if my expectations are not realized, I shall never be encouraged by the flattering prospects of any thing."

Mr. Miller closes his letter with some practical advice concerning the trade with Owyhee. He says that Californians are building a good road from that place to Humboldt, and already run a regular express by which they obtain news in seven days from San Francisco. It is evident, that unless we speedily awaken to a true sense of the importance of securing this trade, we shall find it wrested from us, with but little prospect of competing successfully in the future. These mines are just now to be developed, and with such prospects as may well arouse the jealousy of our neighbors on the South. If our citizens move in the matter as they should, we shall derive all benefits arising from trade with one of the richest sections on the continent. The Columbia country, from its mouth up, will be benefited by a trade still in our hands, and which we can keep if we please, but cannot afford to lose.

The contractor who took out the 10 stamp mill for the Ainsworth Mill Company, returned on the Hunt last evening and says that the mill will be in readiness for quartz crushing operations on or before August 1st. The rock from the celebrated Crane & Driggs lode will be the first operated on, and with astounding results no doubt.

RESIGNATION.—Col. McLean, Deputy Provost Marshal General and Major in the regular army has resigned from the service of the United States, and his resignation has been accepted. Col. T. C. English, of the W. T. Volunteers, late in command at Walla Walla, has been ordered to the Provost Marshalship of this District. Maj. Rinearl will take command of the W. T. regiment in place of Col. English.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 6.

Details of the Raid into Maryland--Panic in the Border Counties.

Retreat of Sigel to Maryland Heights--Harper's Ferry in the hands of the Rebels.

Rebels Storming the Works at Last Dates.

The President calls on New York for 12,000 men and 17,500 from Pennsylvania for 100 days.

Interesting Details of the Engagement between the Kearsarge and the Alabama.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—The Bulletin's Harrisburg special of to-day says that the rebels invaded Pennsylvania at Fayetteville at 1 o'clock this morning. The fears of the people in the border counties have been greatly increased, but considerable alarm still exists. Over 1000 horses passed through Gettysburg yesterday during the scare. An attack was made on Harper's Ferry on the morning of the 4th by some 4000 rebel infantry and cavalry, and at last accounts General Webber was making a steady resistance.

ALBANY, July 5.—The President informs Governor Seymour that a rebel force estimated at from 15,000 to 20,000 strong had invaded Maryland and attacked Martinsburg. Harper's Ferry and were threatening other points. The public safety requires a call upon the States exclusively for a militia force to repel the invasion, and calls upon New York for 12,000 militia as its quota to serve for one hundred days.

BALTIMORE, July 5.—The reports in regard to the movements of the rebels are still contradictory. The telegraph operator at Hagerstown yesterday afternoon says that they are no nearer than Falling Waters and Williamsport, where fighting was going on. The same account says there was fighting at Sharpsburg.

Previous reports say that Sigel has been joined by Mulligan with a force from Cootown, where a battle occurred on Monday.

Nothing has been heard from Sigel or Mulligan at Harper's Ferry since 2 o'clock this afternoon, which is accounted for by the Hagerstown story that they were engaged opposite Shepherdstown, which point they must have been followed by the rebels.

The excitement at Frederick still continues. All the sick in the hospitals have been sent to Annapolis, the Government stores have been removed, no reason is assigned for this movement from Frederick as there is no hostile force within 20 miles of that place except a small cavalry detachment near Point of Rocks.

Hunter is said to be moving his whole force to thwart the designs of the rebels.

The latest information from Baltimore is as follows:

The rebel force which visited Point of Rocks yesterday, did not exceed 100, who were supposed to be under Moseby, and retired after committing robberies.

The excitement at Frederick has in a great measure abated, and it is believed that the provost guard of the place could protect the city from all the rebels that had been seen in that vicinity.

Sigel's and Mulligan's forces reached Maryland Heights at 9 o'clock last night. No doubt is entertained but that our forces will be able to successfully resist any attack that the rebels can make against that place. Other reinforcements are on their way to Maryland Heights. General Webber commanding that post, has given notice to the people of Harper's Ferry to leave, as he intends to open guns on the town to drive off the rebels who are on the Virginia side of the place engaged in plundering. They occasionally send a shell over this side.

The pontoons which crossed the river have been successfully removed, and a span of the railroad bridge was destroyed, to prevent the rebels from crossing.

A dispatch from Cumberland, to day, says that the rebel raid has been very destructive to the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, a number of boats were burned, and teams captured.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—The President has called on Pennsylvania for 17,500 troops to serve at Washington and vicinity one hundred days, unless sooner discharged.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Fessenden entered upon his duties as Secretary of the Treasury this morning and attended a cabinet meeting at noon.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Late private advices from Port Hudson state that the rebels were very active in that quarter. It is reported that Dick Taylor had crossed Atchafalaya on the 5th of June, when an engagement ensued. No particulars given.

Officers from Duvall's Bluff report Marmaduke as still being south of the Arkansas river, 10 miles below Napoleon. His force consists of about 6,000 men and six or eight pieces of artillery.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Thirty-three ocean steamers in this city yesterday resulting from fire works. Five large buildings on Washington and five dwellings on Grand streets were destroyed. Loss about $250 000.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The dispatch stating that Hooker was wounded in a recent fourful assault at Kenesaw Mountain is incorrect. Col. Harker who was wounded has since died. The error was occasioned by the similarity of names.

The World's special at Washington the 5th says: Intelligence from the Upper Potomac is confused and vague. The citizens of Upper Maryland are terribly frightened and are fleeing in all directions. The danger thus far seems more apprehended than real, for the rebels have not occupied permanently any town on the Maryland side of the Potomac. The enemy is supposed to be a part of Ransom and Stuart's cavalry, with infantry from Ewell's corps.

The Asia with dates from Queenstown to June 26th has arrived. It was rumored that Semmes will sail in another pirate ship in August.

The conference met on Saturday and finally adjourned.

It is stated that orders have been issued by the English Government to have ready the equipments for 10 000 troops. The rumor caused an improvement in stocks and consols.

The yacht Deerhound is charged with being a tender to the Alabama.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The steamer St. Louis arrived to day at 9 o'clock, P. M. Private dispatches quote gold in New York on the 5th at 245@246, on the 6th 245@246. Legal tenders 46.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Washington special to the Tribune at 11 20 last night says: Refugees from Hagerstown and Middletown arrived at Baltimore in considerable numbers, and report much excitement throughout the western counties.

BALTIMORE, July 6.—The mail train from Sandy Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry left this morning as usual. Hunter's force from the west is rapidly arriving and will doubtless soon confront the rebels. The rebels retain possession of the Virginia side of Harper's Ferry. Sigel holds the opposite heights. All indications show that the enemy's force does not exceed six or eight thousand, and is a plundering expedition.

The American has the following in this morning's issue:

An intelligent gentleman, who arrived this day from Harper's Ferry states that it is now definitely ascertained that the whole force of the enemy does not exceed 3 000, not less than one fourth of which is cavalry and are concentrating around Harper's Ferry, sending out parties to forage on the people, robbing them of their watches, money, etc.

Some skirmishing took place between our troops and rebels across the river. An occasional shot or shell is thrown at them from Maryland Heights. The fight of Mulligan with the advance of the rebels at Leetown was a most gallant affair. He successfully repulsed them several times. Sigel moved towards Shepardstown with an immense wagon train in front, the protection of which he deemed of more importance than risking a general engagement. Not a wagon fell into the hands of the enemy. He left nothing at Martinsburg except some oats which he burned. The impression prevailed that the rebel force would return before to-morrow as Hunter will be near by at that time with an ample force to overwhelm them, should they remain longer. The principal object of the raid had not been attained, unless it be the damage done to the canal and railroad, to plunder the inhabitants, etc. They have not attempted to leave the line of the Potomac except to rob stores at Point of Rocks and destroy some canal boats near Hancock.

No truth in the reports that the rebel force has been at Boonesboro, Hagerstown or that a raid has been made in the railroad west of Cumberland.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—The Bulletin says that Gen. Couch has received a dispatch which leads to the belief that our cavalry has been driven out of Hagerstown. Our troops are concentrating at Chambersburg and beyond. The Governor will soon issue a call for 12 000 additional troops so that if regiments may be sent to the front.

CHICAGO, July 6.—A special says that Sigel evacuated Martinsburg on Saturday morning and marching east struck the Potomac near Shepardstown where he crossed into Maryland closely followed by the rebels. On Sunday the rebels overtook him and began to attack his rear guard so severely that he was compelled to halt and form in line of battle in the rebel side of the old Antietam battle ground. The fight continued for some time, but being in fact necessary to retreat, then turned, and he passed through Boonsboro and Mountain Gap, and went straight to Harper's Ferry. The rebels kept on his heels. He crossed Harper's Ferry this morning and destroyed the railroad bridge and the trestle work reaching from the ridge to the armory and then occupied Maryland Heights, which he is able to hold against four times his number. Advices yesterday at noon reported that the rebels were charging up the hill to attack him again.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Herald's Harrisburg correspondence says:

Notwithstanding the report some time since that the Alabama was so worn out that she would have to be laid up never to go to sea again, she made a fair trip in the last fight, and was struck but three times by the Kearsarge's guns. Winslow of the Kearsarge then in fact and was immediately sent for and the first man on board the Alabama was a Frenchman, who had been one of her officers. Semmes put the last face on the matter by the unquestionably excellent drill which he gave his men. The fight was short and decisive, the rebels being all caught, but that the Alabama had hanged pieces was the cause of her capitulation. When the Alabama became disabled in her engines the Kearsarge approached closer and opened a most destructive fire, which by Winslow's own admission of the prisoners, could not be paralled, but might be transcended by the St. Louis which she attended and convoyed to the United States.

Capt. Winslow claims Semmes and others taken to Southampton as prisoners. He had single means to pick them up, but the English yacht actually stole them as if by a pre-arranged plan—this constituting a clear case of intervention.

The Tribune's special says Capt. Winslow has been recommended by the Secretary of the Navy for promotion to the rank of Commodore.

It is said here that the value of the Alabama will be distributed among the officers and men of the Kearsarge by next Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The Navy Department has received the following dispatch from the U. S. steamer Kearsarge under date of June 19th:

I have the honor to inform the Department that on the day subsequent to the arrival of the Kearsarge off Cherbourg I received a note from Capt. Semmes, begging that the Kearsarge would not depart, as he intended to fight her and would not delay her but a day or two. According to this notice the Alabama left the port of Cherbourg at 9½ o'clock the morning bearing the question of jurisdiction might arise, we steamed out to sea until a distance of six or seven miles from the Cherbourg breakwater was attained when we rounded and commenced steering for the Alabama. As soon as we appeared within 1,200 yards she opened fire, we receiving two or three broadsides before a shot was returned. The action continued, the respective steamers making circles at a distance of about 400 yards of each other. At the expiration of about an hour the Alabama struck—going down 20 minutes afterwards, carrying many persons with her.

JOHN A. WINSLOW, Capt.

HALIFAX July 6.—A letter to the Paris Pays states that Semmes has announced that on the 15th of August he will embark on the New Alabama, which will be completed that day. Rumor points to the steamer Rappahannock an ex British war vessel, which stole away from Sheerness to Calais.

Fatal Affray at Kerbyville.

JACKSONVILLE, July 8.—A serious affray took place at Kerbyville Oregon, yesterday. A man by the name of Huey attacked S. W. Sawyer with a stone. The latter in self defense stabbed the former in the breast, killing him instantly. It is said Sawyer was entirely justifiable.

MARYSVILLE, July 8.—The John L. Stephens sailed for Portland direct yesterday.

BOISE ITEMS.—Wells, Fargo & Co. furnished us the Boise News of the 25th ult., from which we condense the following:

At Boise City, on the 16th ult., a man named Wm. Sullivan, shot himself accidentally with his revolver. Death ensued instantly.

Two brothers named Lawrence, who had been keeping the Junction House, some eight of ten miles below Boise City, had a difficulty with the father in law of one of the brothers in which the son in law was killed, and the other brother severely injured. This was on the 14th ult.

Complaints have reached Boise about the killing of seven friendly Indians by Capt. Curry's Command or a portion of it, about 35 miles beyond Boonville on the 3d of this month, and many say that it was in retaliation for they killing that the stock was stolen a few nights afterwards at Child's Ferry. The soldiers seem to have a hard time of it they are continually killing too many or not enough of Indians, and when they do kill they always seem to get the wrong ones—in the opinions of those versed in Snake ology. The soldiers are said to be withdrawing from the Owyhee and going towards the head of the Malheur which is also considered hardly right, or justice to the people in Owyhee, particularly, as just at this time a feud exists between the whites and Indians in consequence of the foresaid killing.

On Sunday, June 12th while two prospectors Messrs. Turner and Osgood, were encamped on the Owyhee river, the Indians stole their horses. They went to Childs' Ferry and borrowed two horses on which to hunt for their own, and when some 14 miles up the stream, in a canyon, they were surprised by a band of 14 or 15 Indians, and the borrowed horses taken from them, they only escaped with their lives by swimming the river. That night the Indians came down to the express station of Messrs. Cutler & Westerfield, taking two of their express horses.

A company of several wagons with cows etc., have come into Owyhee from Red Bluff, via Honey Lake and Humboldt. Mr. Sayers, who had quite a number of cattle in the party states that they were in better order on their arrival than when they left California.

Recently several new ledges of gold-bearing quartz have been discovered near the Lamtan and Gambrinus. Arrangements are in progress to procure machinery for working them and ere long we may hear of a town growing up with the euphonious title of Gambrinus.

VANCOUVER LADIES' SANITARY AID SOCIETY.—We have received for publication the following patriotic letter which explains itself:

UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION,
SAN FRANCISCO June 22 1864.

To the Ladies of the Sanitary Aid Society of Vancouver—Dear Ladies.—Again I have the gratification of acknowledging your patriotic zeal and devotion in sending this receipt for your late contribution in currency through Ladd & Tilton of $154.

This generous gift comes at a time when, large as the contributions of the loyal cities and noble people of the country are, the wants of our sick and wounded are fruitfully increased by the horrible battles still raging in Virginia and Alabama. It is a great comfort to see that the duration of the war does not exhaust your patriotism and that your distance from the scene of bloodshed does not diminish your pity and anxiety to soothe the distresses of our noble soldiers. I hope I may have the pleasure of seeing you in person before I leave this coast but should I not be able to effect this present purpose I shall always keep you in affectionate memory. God bless the cause and Nation and send us peace through victory.

Cordially and gratefully yours,
HENRY W. BELLOWS, Pres't.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF ROCK.—From the Boise News we learn that Williams, Kelly & Co., sent out on the 20th, by Wadingham's train, 8000 pounds of rock from the Confederate Star lode south Boise for assay, either at Portland or San Francisco.

WEAKENING.—The Boise News says that the Lynch and Van Winkle ditches are beginning to fail to "give down," to the great inconvenience of many miners who are wholly dependent upon them for water to work their claims.

NEW ROAD TO SANTIAM.—We are informed by a gentleman just returned from the rich mining district on the Santiam that a new, short and easy road is being completed on the further end of the route and that in the course of two weeks it will be in readiness for public use. The distance from Portland to Quartzville (the name of the mining settlement at the base of Gold mountain) is but 90 miles, and a pleasant jaunt in the saddle. He says that by crossing the Willamette in front of this city, passing through Oregon City, thence to Sublimity, crossing the north fork of Santiam at Potter's Ferry into Tox's Prairie, and thence by Meadow road to the summit of Gold Mountain, the distance is made shorter than by any other route, and good grass abounds for animals. It is claimed also that this is by far the shortest route to Canyon City which is some eighty miles to the eastward of Quartzville, and so soon as a trail is completed beyond Gold Mountain, the Canyon City miners may be reached with pack animals in six days. The mines in the vicinity are effectually opened, four mines the better for the miners and the country.

IMPORTANT RUMOR.—By a private telegram received here late last evening, we learn that dispatches had reached San Francisco to the effect that thirty thousand rebels had suddenly appeared near Harper's Ferry. The country about there is represented as being in a state of most intense excitement. Should this rumor prove true, it is evidently a decisive move of Lee to distract the attention of Grant from his work in the vicinity of Richmond and Petersburg. We opine, however, that Grant will still continue digging that "last ditch," and send some of his able generals from a loose occupied army with an adequate force to attend the ball at Harper's Ferry.

THE SANITARY AUCTION SALE.—In accordance with the published notices, Mr. Mansfield yesterday very handsomely decorated the Sanitary Rooster, in "red, white and blue," arranged an auction stand in front of the Dennison House, and proceeded with the sale, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. The first bid for the rooster was $1, then $5, and finally sold, to Mr. Wasserman, for $20. It was redonated and sold twelve times, when the sale adjourned until 5 o'clock p. m. At the second sale but few persons were present, and the bidding was slow. The following were the purchasers:

D. F. Bradford	$10 00
S. Skidmore	5 00
D. F. Bradford	10 00
Total, last sale	$25 00
Sum total	$240 00

In accordance with a previous understanding the highest bidder was to receive the rooster, at the termination of the sale, and it was delivered to the name of Mr. A. B. Elfelt, of the firm of Elfelt, Weil & Co., he having contributed $10 above that of any other person. The terms of sale were based upon legal tender notes, at par value. The sum which is much smaller than was expected to have been realized, will be as thankfully received in its mission of mercy.

A GREENBACK DIFFICULTY.—There was quite a commotion stirred up on Front street in this city, yesterday, on account of a certain well known dry goods merchant attempting to prevent the proprietor of the building in which the goods are sold from taking possession of the basement-story, for the purpose of the establishment of a tallow chandlery and soap manufactory. Not a very savory business, it must be admitted, to be carried on under the floor of a first class, and very fashionable dry goods store. The causes assigned for this procedure on the part of the landlord, are said to arise from a multitude of circumstances, among which are classed the refusal of the tenant to pay his monthly rent in anything but greenbacks, since that species of currency first made its appearance on the Pacific coast, by which arrangement he has managed to get off with pretty cheap rent, and hold his lease with impunity. The proprietor of the building having reserved the cellar undoubtedly has a right to take possession of it, and the remainder is left to conjecture. Both the parties are able to test the question, and we may have occasion to refer to the matter again.

A FISH MARKET TURNED INTO A STATUARY.—The Italians have a remarkable versatility of accomplishments, which they sometimes present in a most singular contrast, striking the beholder with amazement as he observes the strange transformation. Our citizens will remember the fish market, at the corner of Taylor and First streets, where for several months past sturgeon and salmon have been served out to customers, from the practised hand of an Italian fish monger, and will be surprised to learn that, upon the approach of the dull season, when fish were not in demand, and at a time when to cut their noses off it would not prevent their smelling, the market has been abolished, and there arises instead a branch of fine arts, which has puzzled the sages in ancient times. Now the fish market is a statuary, and while the statues formed differ in some respects in the materials composing them, they are similar in formation to those produced by eminent sculptors, and are taken as much from the subjects of poets.

CONTRIBUTIONS.—Mr. Elfelt finished canvassing this city yesterday, for subscriptions toward furnishing equipments, and mounting the detachment of volunteers, for the protection of the Dalles land canyon City road. He will return to the Dalles today with $770, contributed by the following parties:

Oregon Steam Navigation Co., $100; Elfelt, Weil & Co., $5; Col Ruckle, Allen & Lewis, H W Corbett, $50 each; Henry Failing, M Seller & Co, Blumauer & Rosenblatt, Wells, Fargo & Co, Savier & Co, Hass Brothers, Harker Brothers, Ladd & Tilton, Lick, Bloch & Co, Weil Bro & Co, Eckhardt & Bro, Hellman & Morris, $20 each; Eisenlaus & Kohlberg, Hamilton Wilson & Co, Wilberg & Strowbridge, J A Fisher, Mayer & Ackerman, L C Fuller & Co, H W Hyman & Co, J Levy & Bro, Wasserman & Co, Schanfeld & Lebenbaum, Hurgren & Shindler, $10 each; A Cohn & Co, Tracy & King, Bunnell Bro, Jacob Mayer, Swan & Holmes, Waitse Bro, L White & Bro $5 each; cash from five parties, $15—total, $770.

QUARTZ SPECIMENS FOR NEW YORK CITY.—Dr. Farnham, arrived in our city last evening direct from Altiraz county, (South Boise,) Idaho, on his route to New York City, via. San Francisco and Panama, with about 1,000 lbs. of quartz rock, taken out of lodes in that section, in which New York capitalists are interested. The Doctor is well informed regarding the South Boise country, and for that matter, any part of the upper country, and is pleased to furnish parties with any intelligence he is capable of concerning the new mines. His specimens will be on exhibition at the Pioneer Hotel to-day.

A JAM.—The streets of our city yesterday presented the appearance of an old and thriving city in the heart of the very best agricultural districts of the country. All day long a jam of farmer's wagons filled Front street, and it appeared as though everybody had turned out with their mules, and horses, and oxen, and come to town to do their trading. If the roads leading to this city could be kept in the good condition they are now in, we can very readily see what the result would be. Many of the wagons came loaded with flour and grain, which was exchanged in part for salt, goods, and merchandise generally.

K. G. C.—The ominous initials "K. G. C.," appeared in bold relief upon a large copper belt buckle, worn by a two-fisted, broad-shouldered, honest miner who, returning to civilization from the gorges of the mountains, was a passenger by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt. We had an itching to know of him from whence he hailed, whether there was a Circle of them fellows up country, or what the deuce it meant, but being a little timid, (regarding the top of our cranium in case he was "on the light,") we remain in blissful ignorance of what it means, until such time as the Provost Marshal shall meet with him.

LAND OFFICE NOTICE.—By an act of Congress approved on the 21st of March last, a fee of six dollars for each homestead entry, and of one dollar and fifty cents for each pre-emption declaration filed is required. The Register gives notification, elsewhere in this paper, to delinquents.

PERSONAL.—Mr. M. Crawford, the newly appointed collector of internal revenue, for the State of Oregon, vice L. W. Coe, resigned, arrived in this city last evening. Whether he will assume the duties of his office at present, or not, we are uninformed.

THAT ROOSTER.—The "Sanitary Rooster" was presented to Theodore and Henry, sons of M. Mansfield, by Mr. Elfelt's agent, last evening, and we understand it is their intention to dispose of it by raffle—for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission.

BATTERY FUND RECEIPTS.—From Oregon City, by Dr. James Barclay, $43 in currency—the entire proceeds of a Sanitary entertainment.

From W. H. Barnhart, Umatilla, $25, and M. Lyons, $5—currency.

From children at Fort Simcoe, W. T., who feel an interest in the soldiers welfare, by Mr. Pope in currency, $9 25 as follows: Lotty Hall, $2; Mary Hall, Ada and Bork McGrew, Mary Corman, $1 each; Emma Miller, Albert Foster, Mary Foster and "Little Abe Lincoln," 50c each; Ella and Dilly Carman, 25c each; Chara Miller, Lewis Foster and Henry Foster, 20c each; Charley Miller, 10c.

L. Cahn, Portland, $10 coin. A. HOLBROOK.

Oregon Freedmen's Relief Association.—Acknowledge the receipt from collection at the Methodist Church, Portland, June 26th, currency, $345, gold coin, $138 50; July 1st, A. Hartley, $25 gold coin. Premium on gold to July 6, $133 50; making total amount in currency sent to J. B. Collins, Treasurer, $512.

DALLES TEMPERANCE HOUSE.—A. Yeder, of the Temperance House in this city, has opened a hotel of the same name at the Dalles. The success of Mr. Yeder's success in the hotel business is proof of the results of enterprise, and perseverance. The house as it is has gradually came up to its present situation, from a very unpopular beginning, and he is now counted one among the first hotelers. He is always agreeable to certain guests, and will endeavor to merit persons favorable to the Dalles House. He designs to have it conducted upon pretty near the same principle of the home establishment.

Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast-growing and scrofulous children, predisposed to curvatures and other deformities, it is often desireable to give a tonic without stimulants, and an alterative without irritation. For such, it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the surest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26dlm

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat to which we so slight, by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires.

REDINGTON & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

☞ In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's Indian Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

PORTLAND, Friday July 8, 1864.

There has been a lack of business in city trade for the week closing to day, although the wholesale and jobbing interests have been very active, and the supplies forwarded to the interior, and mining sections are not materially less than for the same period in months past. We observe that large quantities of recent shipments are destined for Lewiston, and intended for the late discovered mines of Kootenai. Private letters inform us that most kinds of merchandise can be obtained in the Boise region at figures very little in advance of Portland wholesale prices.

The daily receipts of domestic produce per river steamers continues large, the principal part being flour and oats.

From wagons a moderate amount of business has been done. The average prices paid to-day for country produce are as follows:

Oats, in good demand, at 65 cents. Wheat, active at $1; Bacon, in demand at 18 cts., principally for shipment to the upper Columbia.

Butter ranges at about 28 cents per lb., for common.

Lard is quotable nominally at 12½ cents per lb. in bulk; in cans at 16 cents, with but little coming to market.

Eggs are bought and sold just as customers are to be found, the year of small lots changing hands to-day at prices ranging from 22 to 27 cents per doz.

Chickens are in moderate demand, without excessive supply, at $4 26 per doz. Spring chickens $2 75 @ $3.

The following are prices for only vegetables, at the local stands: Green Beans, 10@15 cents per lb; Peas, 3@5; New potatoes (Oregon) 2@2½ cents; Cucumbers, 75 cents per doz; Onions, 7 cts per lb.

The supply of fruits in market are quite limited.

The schooner Jenny Jones has taken on board a cargo of produce for Victoria, consisting of oats, mill feed, and flour, intending to sail as soon as possible, but is detained for a decision in the U. S. District Court, concerning some portions of the cargo thrown overboard on Peacock Spit, now in progress of trial.

The bark Cambridge will receive freight from Couch's wharf to-morrow, before handling the loading of lumber. She will be ready to sail for the Sandwich Islands in a few days.

The bullion received by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, for the week, is as follows.

Friday, July, 1st	$15,000
Saturday, " 2d	16,130
Monday, " 4th	16,000

The Lady at the Window

I have been an invalid f- some time I do not remember the day which I took to my bed—but perhaps it was about the time our people began to talk about the probability of a draft

However, I was not unwilling to draw a prize in that lottery, for strange as it may seem, my health began to improve from that day In the course of a few weeks I was able to spend a few hours every day in the open air

I was in the habit of walking the whole length of C street and back, after breakfast Why I chose that street I do not know It is very quiet The houses are all three and the people generally live in the rear

The second morning that I walked in this way, I noticed that Madam De Gwin occupies the fourth brick house on the right and side as you go to toward the East was a dressmaker I knew that by her sign, for a that time I had never seen the lady

The third morning I walked on the opposite side of the street from Madam De Gwin's I cast my eyes up at her windows I had no particular reason for doing so Of course I did not care to see Madam De Gwin for I have little curiosity about my neighbors She was doubtless a very plain looking woman, of perhaps thirty or forty summers

But, as I said before I looked up at her window (she occupies the second floor), and beheld a lady—I knew her by her rich dress—and she was looking tenderly down at me I blushed and hung my head, and passed on

Was it Madam De Gwin that I had seen I did not know Quite probable it was a visitor She was very beautiful I thought, though I had only caught a glimpse of her face

As I returned home that morning I longed to look up at madam's windows once more, but hardly dared There was just a narrow strip of blue sky between the two rows of brick houses I gazed long at that streak of blue, and then brought my eyes down to the roofs of the houses, then a little lower, till I saw that face, and at the window looking so tenderly at me I looked again, and I thought she bowed I did not think how improper it was for her to do so, for I was too happy to think of that I bowed in return, taking off my hat to the fair lady

The landlady, when I came into the parlor after my walk that morning, noticed that I looked better than I had for a long time There was a tinge of color in my face and a joyous light in my eyes, such as health always imparts

"You are better this morning, Mr Dunlap?" said she.

"Why, yes, I feel much better than I did a few weeks ago But I have a question to ask, do you know Madam De Gwin?"

"Of C street? the dressmaker?"

"Yes."

"Why, she does all my work for me"

"Well, what sort of a woman is she?"

"I m sure, I know very little about her, except that she understands her business"

"Is she young and good looking?"

"Why, she's not over twenty five, and is quite handsome, I think She's a widow,' replied my landlady, her fair round face expressing some curiosity

"A widow?"

Here I began to pace the room I did not doubt then that the beautiful lady I had seen was Madam De Gwin

"I suppose that Madam generally sits at her front window when she is in her shop," I said, taking a chair by the fire

"I believe so, though I do not remember I hope, Mr. Dunlap is not in love," said my landlady, with a smile

"And why not? 'Tis the lot of mortals to fall in love"

"I know that, but Madam De Gwin is a French woman, and a great coquette. She might make your heart sore"

"Well, I'm not in love, though I soon may be Madam is a very beautiful woman, and I thought how tenderly she had looked down upon me that morning

Being told that Madam was a great coquette had no effect upon me whatever I don't suppose that it ever did on any man Though a hundred had failed to win her love, I should not have doubted my own success At that time, though, it was not my intention to enter the lists as one of Madam's lovers I had seen her and thought her beautiful, and that was all

It would not have been at all like me to walk upon another street the next morning No, I strolled along C street at my usual hour I glanced carelessly at Madam's window She sat there as I had seen her the day before, and her beautiful dark eyes were surely fixed on my face. Being a modest man I was quite overcome If we can read the language of the eyes, Madam loved me as much as I admired her, I felt it very sensibly Would it be wrong for me to throw a kiss? I did not stop to think, but kissed my hand, but as I did so, I saw another lady looking over Madam's shoulder, and I slipped my hand in my pocket and passed on as if nothing had happened

Days and weeks passed on and my admiration of Madam's beauty was fast ripening into love for the 'lone widow" Every morning I saw her sitting at her widow, waiting no doubt, till I should pass I generally bowed, and I think she did the same, though I hardly ever glanced back after bowing, fearing Madam's workwomen would notice me, and it was my desire that no one but my love should know of my passion

As time passed on, I came to think that we who had nursed our love in secret so long, should know each other better We should meet face to face and speak heart to heart, but for a long time no opportunity offered I could call upon Madam at her house, but I hardly felt like doing that, as I had no positive proof that Madam wished to make my acquaintance Her conduct I thought to be sure had been such as to justify me in calling upon her but I rather chose to let our meeting be where and how fate should determine I knew we should meet some time I was sure of that We belonged to each other, and I felt nothing save death could keep us asunder

I had never spoken to my landlady about Madam De Gwin since the first morning I had seen her, and I thought that she had forgotten all about it, but that was not the case.

"Would Mr. Dunlap like to call upon Madam De Gwin this afternoon?" she asked one morning, as I stood in the hall

To tell the truth, I was thinking about Madam at that very moment, and so was rather startled at the sound of her name but recovering at once, I told my landlady how pleased I should be

"Then you have not forgotten her?" queried my landlady

"No, and never shall," I answered, with some spirit

"She has spoken of you"

"Of me? and "

"I did not ask her questions If she loves you she will tell you so I presume if you ask her, 'replied my landlady, with a little laugh, and walked away

I went and sat down in the parlor, feeling too happy to speak I could not make it seem possible that the time I had longed for was so near at hand In a few hours I was to be one of the happiest of mortals I to be in the same room, to breathe the same air, look into her eyes, to speak to her I loved better than all else on earth —could it be possible. I could not believe it However by afternoon I began to realize that it was a fact My wedding stood really before me to go

I took my tea and but with a trembling hand My landlady noticed my agitation and hurried away to get me some brandy and water I must reveal me You know that I was an invalid I am not fully recovered yet, though I hope to be soon

After drinking the brandy I felt equal to the task before me and so we sallied out into the street and made for Madam De Gwin's rooms The distance never seemed so short before Almost before I knew it we stood at the door

We ascended the stairs and for the first time I stood in Madam De Gwin's rooms

A lady with a pleasing countenance, whom I thought I had seen before, came forward I was introduced to her, to my surprise to learn that she was Madam De Gwin!

I could not understand it for a moment, but rising up, I saw my love sitting at her window at the further end of the room as usual Her face was turned from me Why did she not look and greet me?

You employ some one to help you, I suppose Madam" said I, glancing at the young lady, and trying to attract her attention

Yes, but my girls are not in this apartment"

'But she cannot be a visitor, I have seen her here often,"

What' asked Madam De Gwin, looking up My landlady looked at the same time They both smiled when they saw my eyes fixed upon the occupant of the farther window. Then my landlady placed her lips down to my ear and whispered very distinctly

'Nothing but wax!'

I never been able to discover how I left the room I only know that when I awoke consciousness I was in bed, and my landlady was holding to my lips brandy and water to my lips I shall never recover from the effects of this blow

REMARKABLE CASE OF TOUGH SOLDIER — The following remarkable case occurred lately in one of the Hospitals at Alexandria Matthew Phenix, Company B, 86th New York Volunteers was wounded by a spent ball in the left eye at Mine Run, on the 27th November, 1863 He was brought to the Baptist Church Hospital, in this city, on the 4th day of December 1863, where his wound was probed by Dr. C P. Bigelow surgeon in charge, who failed to discover the locality of the ball He remained in the hospital some time, experiencing occasional pain, but all the time his general health was improving The wound was frequently probed by Dr Bigelow, but without any better result than at the first trial About the first of March last, his general health being very good, he was granted a furlough for forty days At the expiration of that time he returned, and soon began to complain quite frequently of severe pain from his wound The wound was again probed, and some pieces of dead bone taken from his eye and the roof of his mouth

On Saturday last, in examining the wound again with a probe, Dr Bigelow discovered the locality of the ball, which seemed to be resting immediately over the pallet of his mouth or throat Inserting his ball forceps he found he could not grasp it, and after repeated efforts, he concluded to wait until Sunday morning when it was his intention to separate the bone on each side of the eye, by which means it was thought the ball could be easily taken out Early on Sunday morning, a messenger aroused the Doctor, and informed him that Phenix was choking to death He at once repaired to the hospital, where he found the patient in the condition stated He soon discovered that the ball had been moved from its original bed a little lower down, and unless immediately removed, must produce suffocation He inserted his forceps, and extracted the ball without the least difficulty, giving instant relief to his patient The ball was a grape shot (iron), one and a half inches in diameter, and about four inches in circumference, and weighs but a fraction less than half a pound To any one but a surgeon, this story would seem somewhat miraculous, both truth sometimes is even stranger than fiction Phenix is still at the above hospital, and, from all appearances, the carrying of a cannon ball in his head for five months has but slightly impaired his health, and has shortened his days in the least.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent This, considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U S Mint Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly" July 6, 1863, page 76)

The valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption Cancer Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh strength and color, his form is pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full strong and florid
